

Jason Smith

4344 Ganaraska Road
Campbellcroft, Ontario L0A 1B0
(289)385-0450
jasonwaynesmith1984@gmail.com

Summary

Reliable, highly motivated Journeyman Electrician focused on quality, safety and successful job completion. Skilled in layout, repair, assembly, termination and maintenance of electrical systems in both residential and commercial settings. Effectively able to multi-task and manage time to ensure deadlines are met. Described as a detail oriented team player who demonstrates a strong understanding of Canadian Electrical Code.

Skills

- Comprehensive grasp of Canadian Electrical Code
- Able to take and follow directions accurately
- Able to interpret blueprints and schematics drawings
- Diligently adhere to safety protocol
- Strong technical and mechanical aptitude
- Proven ability to multi-task
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Works well independently or as part of a team
- Proven ability to adapt quickly to a challenge
- Superior troubleshooting skills
- Dependable, punctual and a quick learner
- Hold a valid G license

Employment History

309A Journeyman

C.M.L. Electrical
July 2009 – Present

- Responsible for layout and installation of current and potential transformers for sub metering systems
- Conduct electrical installations, including but not limited to; running conduit, sizing wire and terminating connection based on Canadian Electrical Code requirements
- Test and troubleshoot existing electrical connections, identifying problem and repairing accordingly
- Responsible for testing circuits to ensure safe system operation
- Read and interpret blueprints, electronic schematics and mechanical layouts
- Performed service upgrades and new panel installation
- Responsible for installation standby generator
- Utilize testing equipment to find faults and defects in systems
- Adhere to Canadian Electrical Code and safety regulations
- Responsible for maintaining a clean and safe worksite

General Contractor

J.C. Construction
October 2006 – July 2009

- Responsible for organizing, planning and overseeing multiple renovation projects from start to finish ensuring timely completion and customer satisfaction
- Collaborated with customers and engineers to facilitate plan for renovation
- Managed book keeping, accounts receivable and maintained WSIB records with a high degree of accuracy
- Read and interpreted blueprints while closely following Ontario Building Code
- Install and repair flooring, drywall and framework
- Kitchen, bathroom and basement renovations
- Mastered specialty tools and equipment
- Ensure workplace safety rules followed

Production Technician

Johnson Controls

May 2004 – October 2006

- Identified proper parts to complete assembly by reading specification sheet and blueprints
- Assembled parts to specification
- Responsible for finished product inspection which included quality, quantity, physical appearances
- Utilizes rivet gun, air gun, knife, welding and other hand tools to perform duties
- Adhere to safety rules and regulations

Education

Durham College of Applied Arts & Tech
Completed with Honors
November 2018

309A Electrician – Construction and Maintenance

Durham Catholic District School Board
December 2004 – March 2005

Grade 12 Diploma (O.S.S.D.)

Certificate of Qualification

309A Electrician – Construction and Maintenance

Certificate of Completion

WHMIS 2015 - Issued January 3, 2019

References Available Upon Request