

CURRICULUM – VITAE

Bir Narayan Maharjan

Ichangu Narayan VDC-6, Kathmandu, Nepal
(Presently at United Arab Emirates)
Contact no.: 0543409702

Job Summary

The Power Generation Mechanic independently performs maintenance and repairs on power generation units and related equipment and Auto Technician.

Principal Accountabilities:

(Typical duties include the following, although specific duties may vary by assignment or contract)

- Operate, maintain, troubleshoot, repair, and/or replace power generator systems and parts
- Order and receive service and replacement parts for power generators
- Coordinate and schedule regular generator services and refueling missions
- Monitor loads and move/replace generators according to load requirements
- Maintain generator and property movement logs and create the Lost, Theft, Damaged, Destroyed (LTDD) and incident reports
- Inspect and maintain fuel tanks, fuel burners, and electrical wiring
- Walk through new and existing construction sites to perform power assessments
- Perform other duties as assigned

Knowledge & Skills

- Ability to interpret and apply manufacturer repair manuals and technical specifications, schematics, engineering drawings, and diagnostic codes
- Basic knowledge of a variety of engines, power generation, electrical safety, and engine maintenance
- Ability to perform maintenance on coolant, oil, and fuel systems
- Skill in performing extended load tests by using math formulas to meet specifications
- Additional knowledge and skill requirements may vary by assignment

Technical Skills & Knowledge and Professional Accomplishments

- Excellent catching capability in the field of diesel and petrol engine.
- Skilled in utilizing hydraulic, pneumatic and auto mechanical tools to facilitate the maintenances of different types of rides
- Coordinate and acquired training with Indian Piston Ltd. (I.P.L.) in promotion of automotive engine rebuilding.
- Successfully troubleshoot the numerous mechanical and technical problems with corrective mood of action regarding the same.
- Coordinate and support as a generator technician for providing and aid to United State Mission in Iraq.

Experiences History

- Renaissance Services SAOG, Iraq (KBBR Sub contract)
From: 2004 - 19th August, 2009
Position: Generator Technician

- DynCorp International LLC
From: 19th Nov., 2009 – 12th April, 2014
Position: Generator Mechanic
- Arabian Jacking Enterprises for Contracting & Trading Company Doha, Qatar
From 2003 - 2004
Position: Mechanical Technician
- Wonder Park LLC Dubai, UAE
From: 1997 - 2001
Position: Mechanical Technician
- Biswakarma Auto Workshop, Kathmandu, Nepal
From: 1981 - 1997
Position: Senior Mechanic

Professional Training

- Attained a specialist training course on lubrication presented by Castrol on 1996.
- Successfully concluded the training on Basic Automobile Electronic, step 1 and 2 on 2004.
- Received special maintenance training on diesel and petrol engine help by Auto Mechanic Association, Nepal on 1995.
- Actively participated in training programme organized by Swiss Contract/Small industry promotion programmer on 1997.
- Attended seminars related to mechanical field conducted by Dhukhams, Usha & SIP-P Company.

Experience & Education

- Minimum fifteen (15) years of experience in a mechanic role including repair and replacement of diesel generators, generator electrical systems, and generator electronic systems
- Prefer graduate of an accredited diesel school
- Automobile Engineering course from Tribhuwan University from 1985 - 1987.
- SLC from Nandi Ratri High School, Kathmandu, Nepal on 1985.

Achievement and Appreciation

- Achievement and certification by Iraqi Freedom for organizing and arranging a Global Birthday celebration 2005.
- Received at certificate of appreciation as a subcontractor in United State Mission in Iraq.
- Certified with appreciation by team Bulldog, TF3-8 Cavalry for outstanding performance of the duty by Iraqi Freedom II.
- Awarded with certificate of appreciation for serving at the Gurkha Camp on 2005.

Volunteer Association

- Active general member of the Nepal Auto Mechanic Association.
- Voluntarily organized basic management training for Auto Mechanic Association, Nepal (AAN)
- Participated and developed transformation of Organization Development Center (ODC)