

SOUTH BAY REGIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TRAINING CONSORTIUM and MILPITAS FIRE DEPARTMENT

PRESENTS:

Ethical Leadership in the Classroom

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Each class is one day only

This course is an 8 hour course and is designed to provide instructors who will deliver State Fire Training programs:

This one-day course is designed to provide students with concepts and theories of the ethical decision making process. It will help to recognize the signs of an ethical dilemma, identify advantages and disadvantages of ethical behavior, and an opportunity to review examples of classroom situations in which instructors used their leadership role to either encourage or discourage ethical behavior. Participants in this class will examine ethics, values, principles, and morality. State Fire Training's Instructor Code of Ethics/Conduct will also be presented.

Prerequisites: None

INSTRUCTOR: RODNEY SLAUGHTER

Rodney is a Retired CAL Fire Division Chief and a Retired Deputy State Fire Marshal Specialist from the Office of the State Fire Marshal and State Fire Training Division. Rodney began his fire service career in 1974, as a military and civilian fire fighter for the United States Air Force, with assignments in Florida, Hawaii, and California. Rodney was employed as a Deputy State Fire Marshal with experience in code enforcement, training, grant writing and code development
